

BRITISH WORKMAN.

General Downing.—“So you are the impudent fellow who will not work on a Sunday?”

HE WHO SERVES GOD SERVES A GOOD MASTER.

"Remember, I must have the bride on Monday," said Mr. Harcourt, as he turned to leave a shop where he had been giving some orders about his horses...

"I beg your pardon, but I have given the order, the matter coming forward," but it will not be possible to get it done by Monday," returned Mr. Harcourt, stopping short...

"I can see the wisdom of the transaction," but I confess, I do not see the sanctity of it," returned Wilcox with a laugh...

"I am not arguing on the point," returned Benson. "You asked why I did not undertake Mr. Percival's business to drum them."

"I am not arguing on the point," returned Benson. "You asked why I did not undertake Mr. Percival's business to drum them."

had to wait for him. When he came in, I was shocked to see how haggard and worn he looked. "Who is that man?" asked you. "Are you his?" I asked.

"I have been—been to his grave, and I have had a resolution there, and please God, I will keep it, Benson," he said, as he turned to go.

"I am not arguing on the point," returned Benson. "You asked why I did not undertake Mr. Percival's business to drum them."
